2Ki 4:1 Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD; and the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves." 2 Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?"

NOTES

Great Granny was born the year after slavery was abolished for her family. Her parents were share croppers when she was a little girl. They worked for a white family, possibly the family that originally owned her parents. She told us about how mean the girl her age was. One story she told us was how the girl tried to pin her down and pee on her. Imagine that kind of degradation as a child. Granny wasn't deterred. She scratched and bit her until she got off of her. She never bothered her again. After her first husband died, Granny married a well known peanut farmer and loved a much better life than more. She outlived all 13 children except our grandfather
