GAME – Follow Me

Play a game of follow the leader! Walk around your room (or take your kids on a field trip in your yard) and have the follow you wherever you go – doing whatever it is you are doing. Have lots of fun with this! If your kids are old enough, let them take turns being a leader. When you have finished the activity, say: In this game, you had to follow me very carefully! You had to do exactly what I did – and you did a GREAT job! We follow God because he is faithful; He always keeps his promises!

PROMISE ACTIVITY – Peek a boo

SUPPLIES: blanket

Play a game of peek a boo with your toddlers using a large blanket. SAY: I will always be under this blanket-I promise. Look for me! When they lift the blanket SAY: Peek-a-boo! I am here, just like I promised. Repeat, saying: I am still here. Here I am again! God promised he is always here. We know he really is here because God is faithful; he always keeps his promises!

FAMILY TIME...

Schedule a family movie night this week to watch “Abe and the Amazing Promise” (Veggietales on Youtube). Make it an event by having your child help you plan a special movie menu, make invitations for each family member, or come up with other fun ideas, like making it a pajama party—be creative.

PRAYER

God promised to hear our prayers. And he does, because God is faithful and he always keeps his promises. Let’s talk to him now. Hold hands or bow your heads together (just demonstrate and ask them to do the same. Some may, most may just watch.)

Say a short prayer like the following: Dear God, you are faithful to us. You always keep your promises, and you will never forget. Help us to trust you and believe your promises. We love you. Thank you for loving us. Amen.
