

THE UNKNOWN GOD IS THE CREATOR

GENESIS 1.1-9

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:2 The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

Genesis 1:3 Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 And God saw that the light was good. Then he separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light "day" and the darkness "night." And evening passed and morning came, marking the first day.

Genesis 1:6 Then God said, "Let there be a space between the waters, to separate the waters of the heavens from the waters of the earth."

Genesis 1:7 And that is what happened. God made this space to separate the waters of the earth from the waters of the heavens.

Genesis 1:8 God called the space "sky." And evening passed and morning came, marking the second day.

Genesis 1:9 Then God said, "Let the waters beneath the sky flow together into one place, so dry ground may appear." And that is what happened.

Genesis 1:24 Then God said, “Let the earth produce every sort of animal, each producing offspring of the same kind—livestock, small animals that scurry along the ground, and wild animals.” And that is what happened.

Genesis 1:25 God made all sorts of wild animals, livestock, and small animals, each able to produce offspring of the same kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let us make human beings in our image, to be like us. They will reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the wild animals on the earth, and the small animals that scurry along the ground.”

Genesis 1:27 So God created human beings in his own image.

In the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:28 Then God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that scurry along the ground.”
